

Name: Foster

Age: 17

Grade: 7

Following his parents' divorce, Foster had no choice but to drop out of school and go live with his grandmother and 10 of her grandchildren. His grandmother sells charcoal and makes barely enough to feed the busy household.

Foster was recommended to Baraka by the community, as a hardworking and determined boy, they felt he deserved to be in school.

Now in Grade 7, not only is he doing very well at school, but is passionate about helping other vulnerable children in the community when he completes his education.
